

NOT A RIPPLE

Henry J. Waters Chosen President of State Teachers.

Election Made Without Voice Heard in Opposition.

RUMOR OF A CONTEST.

Women Talked of Electing One of Their Number.

Boom Started for Mrs. McCarter of Topeka.

WILL END TO NIGHT.

Dr. Wm. P. Trent of Columbia University to Speak.

Prof. Holden, "Corn Wizard" Will Also Be Heard.

Tonight's Program at Auditorium.

Address, Dr. Wm. P. Trent, Columbia University, New York.

The Topeka State Journal

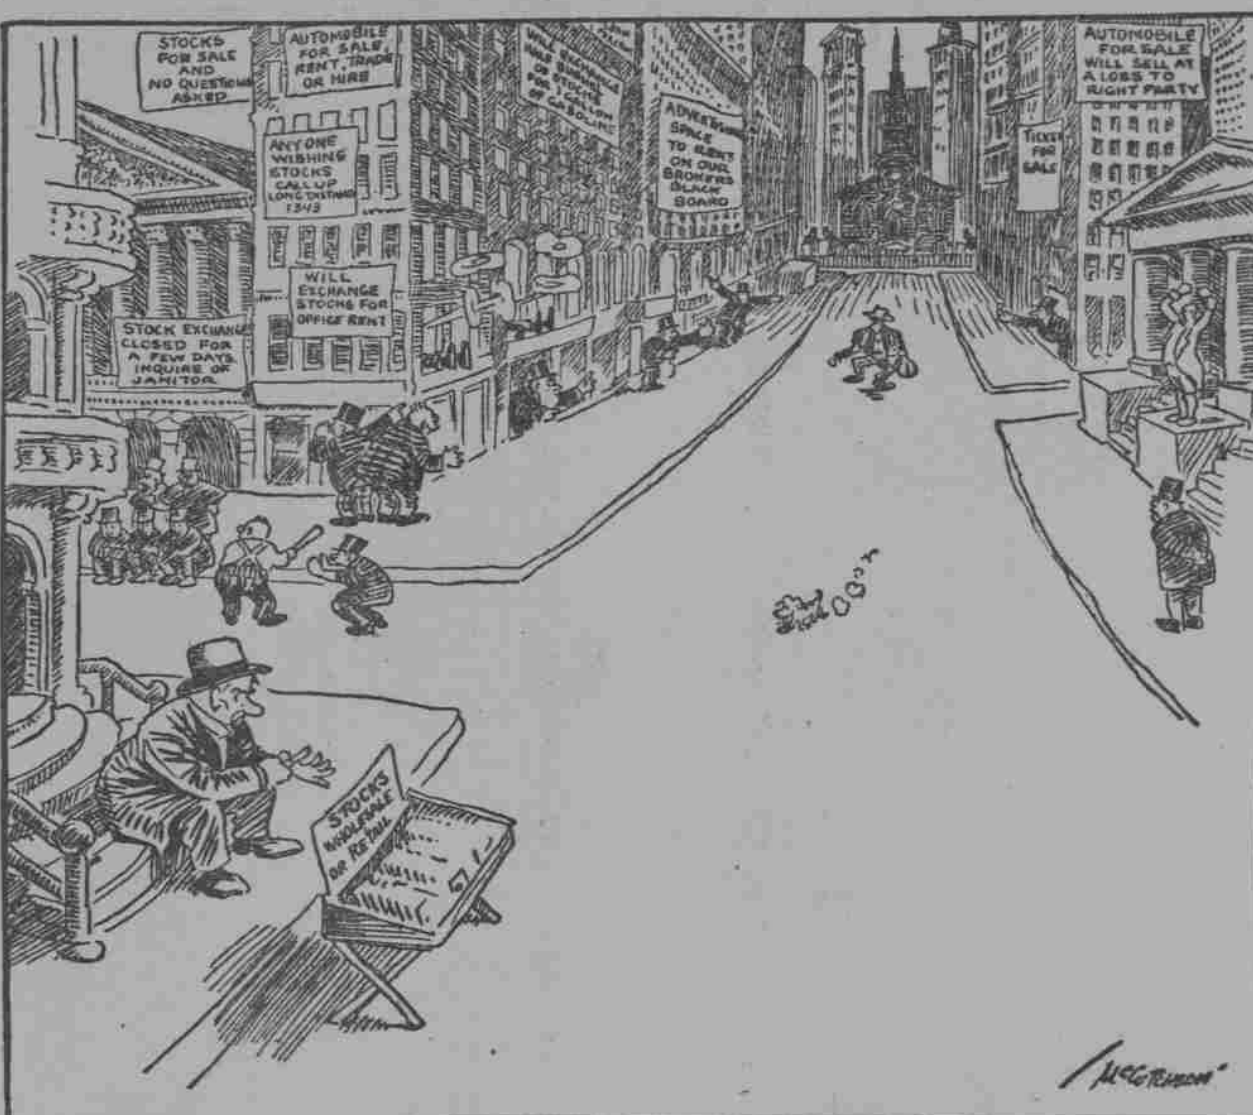

Superintendent E. T. Fairchild, Who Addressed the Teachers This Morning.

the majority of them. A bunch of Wichita school ma'ams came to the capital city with the intention of capturing the next meeting of the Kansas State Teachers' association for the "Peerless Princess," and they have been the only knockers on the treatment received at the hands of Topeka.

When asked by a reporter what he has been hearing while talking with visiting teachers relative to their attitude towards the manner in which they have been treated, Prof. J. W. Searson, head of the publicity bureau, said: "Good nature seemed to abound everywhere. The cafes, restaurants, rooming houses and even on the streets

SPIRITED SCENE IN WALL STREET THESE DAYS.

ADOPTS U. S. PLAN

China Imitates Action of the American Colonies in '76.

Congress Will Act in an Executive Capacity Temporarily.

CAPITAL AT CANTON.

Fighting Continues at Fu Chow With Heavy Losses.

Retreat of Imperial Family From Peking Is Cut Off.

Hong Kong, Nov. 10.—Chang Ming Chi, viceroy at Canton, who arrived here last night on board a British warship, issued a statement to the foreign consuls today making formal proclamations of the independence of Canton and Kwangtung province. He declared he is authorized by the people to make the proclamation. He says that under the new regime the provincial assembly will act in an executive capacity in addition to its legislative functions.

All relations with foreign powers will continue in statu quo, but will be conducted from Canton by the provincial government, instead of through Peking.

British sailors with four rapid fire guns are guarding the foreign quarter at Canton. The revolutionists have assumed control of Admiral Li Chun's headquarters and have hoisted the republican flag over the admiral's office.

Amoy Without a Head.

Amoy, China, Nov. 10.—This city is without a ruler today. Tao Tai Chang has laid down the reins of government and none of his subordinates appears willing to take them up. Chang today refused to receive official dispatches, declaring that he was no longer in charge. Tung Gan, chief magistrate of the district, has abandoned his court and fled from the city.

The night was one of anxiety. All the street gates were closed and the citizens remained within doors. There were repeated attempts to fire the city, but all were frustrated. Shipping is at the mercy of the pirates, who are carrying affairs with a high hand. Junks are afraid to venture far from their anchorages.

The American cruiser Albany returned to Shanghai last night. The British gunboat Rosario anchored in the harbor this morning. At Puchow, which yesterday was occupied by revolutionists, fighting continued with heavy losses on both sides. Last night a number of Manchus, fleeing from Fu Chow, tried to burn one of the suburbs. They were caught by a detachment of rebels and summarily executed. Between sunset last night and an early hour today, the Fu Chow revolutionists captured and put to death forty innocents.

Retreat Is Cut Off.

Peking, Nov. 10.—This city was still quiet today, the only important development this morning was the abandonment of the Peking-Kalgan railway by its staff, thus cutting off the retreat of the imperial family by this route. The railroad officials have abandoned their posts.

Grows More Serious.

London, Nov. 10.—The situation at Tien Tsin appears to have grown more serious. Dispatches today say that ball cartridges have been issued to the legation guards.

Chinese Hurry Home.

Tokio, Nov. 12.—Hwang Hsi, the Chinese minister to Japan, has left his official residence here for parts unknown in order to avoid a meeting with the 200 young Chinese students who are in educational institutions here at government expense.

NOT AFRAID OF BENNIE.

Lawrence Doesn't Fear Sooner Rushes—Two New Men.

Lawrence, Kan., Nov. 10.—Confidence that only victory can result for Kansas in the football game with Oklahoma on tomorrow was strong in the Kansas squad today.

The week of hard practice and hammering tactics administered by Coach Sherwin since last Saturday's game with Washburn is said by football followers to have made the team just about twice as effective as last week. Two new lights shone in the line this week. Davidson, the 210 pound guard, is playing at great game, and for one of his weight, has shown great speed. Bramwell, a big recruit from the freshmen of last year, has been given a permanent place as right guard. No fear of the undefeated Oklahoma was expressed by players or coaches today.

WOULD BAR PRESS

Men Who Tarred Teacher Seek Shelter From Shame.

Friends Greatly Worried Now About Community's Honor.

Lincoln Center, Kan., Nov. 10.—Petitions were circulated here today asking that the sending out of reports of the "tar and feather" case which goes to trial here next Wednesday be prohibited for the sake of the honor of the community.

The trial of 14 men charged with the tarring of Miss Mary Chamberlain, a school teacher of Shady Beach, Kan., last summer will be held in the district court before Judge Dallas Grover. The petitions are addressed to Judge Grover.

County Attorney McCanless announced today he had obtained the service of S. N. Hawk, assistant attorney general of the state to assist in the prosecution.

THE WEATHER RECORD.

The following are observations of the United States weather bureau for the 24 hours ending at 7 o'clock this morning.

Locations.	High.	Low.	Rain.
Amesbury, Tex.	70	44	0
Amesbury, N. Y.	50	36	34
Amesbury, Ill.	50	36	34
Amesbury, Mo.	50	36	34
Amesbury, Kan.	50	36	34
Amesbury, Okla.	50	36	34
Amesbury, Colo.	50	36	34
Amesbury, Wyo.	50	36	34
Amesbury, Mont.	50	36	34
Amesbury, N. Dak.	50	36	34
Amesbury, S. Dak.	50	36	34
Amesbury, Iowa	50	36	34
Amesbury, Ind.	50	36	34
Amesbury, Ohio	50	36	34
Amesbury, Pa.	50	36	34
Amesbury, N. J.	50	36	34
Amesbury, N. C.	50	36	34
Amesbury, S. C.	50	36	34
Amesbury, Fla.	50	36	34
Amesbury, Ala.	50	36	34
Amesbury, Miss.	50	36	34
Amesbury, Ark.	50	36	34
Amesbury, La.	50	36	34
Amesbury, Tex.	50	36	34

Amesbury, Kan., Nov. 10.—The cold wave here has been ordered up along the great lakes. The edges of the cold wave area today extended over the upper Mississippi valley, Nebraska and Iowa.

The cold wave here is accompanied by snow which is drifting in a high wind, snow in the Cascade mountains is being blown in the cuts and trains are arriving half an hour late. All incoming vessels, from north and south report bad weather.

Butte, Nov. 10.—The thermometer registered below zero in southern Alberta. Five inches of snow fell last night. The cold wave is general throughout Montana.

Weather Still Pleasant.

This morning at 8 o'clock the thermometer registered 16 degrees cooler than Thursday at the same hour; at 2 o'clock this afternoon the temperature was the same as at the corresponding hour Thursday. Conditions will remain unsettled tonight and tomorrow, according to the local weather forecast. The mercury will probably slip down to about the freezing point by early morning. The weather has been ideal today. The hourly readings:

7 o'clock 42 11 o'clock 48
8 o'clock 38 12 o'clock 53
9 o'clock 41 1 o'clock 58
10 o'clock 44 2 o'clock 62

WOMAN IN CASE.

Prof. Jackson's Disappearance Thus Explained in Wichita.

Sterling Teacher Seen With Girl During Friends' Search.

HE WAS AT AUGUSTA.

Reported to Have Been There After Disappearance.

Told Friends He Would Never Again Be Heard From.

Wichita, Kan., Nov. 10.—Prof. Ralph Jackson of Sterling, Kan., is still alive, according to a story published here. Not only that, but it is declared he has left the city forever because of trouble in which a girl from Enid, Ok., figures. The story was made public by the woman proprietor of a retreat to which the girl was taken.

According to the woman, Jackson and the girl appeared at the home two days after he dropped out of his friends' sight. He communicated with the girl daily by telephone and called on her the Friday following his disappearance. Following their last telephone conversation the girl was angry because her "friend" did not come out to see her and wept bitterly.

On the day he called at the home, Jackson, if it were he, said that he was going away and would never be heard from again. He told the girl goodbye, saying that she knew what to do with herself. A newspaper dispatch from Augusta reported his being seen there shortly after the disappearance.

The woman's story is that Jackson went to Augusta and remained there most of the time the girl was in the retreat. A newspaper dispatch from Augusta reported his being seen there shortly after the disappearance.

STORM FLAGS UP.

Cold Wave Is Moving Eastward Along Northern Border.

Washington, Nov. 10.—A cold wave which today sent the mercury to 22 degrees below zero in southern Alberta and to low readings in North Dakota, Wyoming and Montana, is moving eastward. Decidedly cooler weather is indicated for Saturday in the North Atlantic states and the Ohio valley.

Cold wave warnings have been issued for Michigan, Indiana and Ohio and storm flags have been ordered up along the great lakes. The edges of the cold wave area today extended over the upper Mississippi valley, Nebraska and Iowa.

Seattle, Nov. 10.—The cold wave here is accompanied by snow which is drifting in a high wind, snow in the Cascade mountains is being blown in the cuts and trains are arriving half an hour late. All incoming vessels, from north and south report bad weather.

Butte, Nov. 10.—The thermometer registered below zero in southern Alberta. Five inches of snow fell last night. The cold wave is general throughout Montana.

Weather Still Pleasant.

This morning at 8 o'clock the thermometer registered 16 degrees cooler than Thursday at the same hour; at 2 o'clock this afternoon the temperature was the same as at the corresponding hour Thursday. Conditions will remain unsettled tonight and tomorrow, according to the local weather forecast. The mercury will probably slip down to about the freezing point by early morning. The weather has been ideal today. The hourly readings:

7 o'clock 42 11 o'clock 48
8 o'clock 38 12 o'clock 53
9 o'clock 41 1 o'clock 58
10 o'clock 44 2 o'clock 62

TEACHERS! UP TO STUBBS.

This is first and only newspaper in the world printing a page in colors, red, blue and black, daily.

100 days $1.00, by mail only. Leave orders at State Journal office.

Copies on sale by newsboys and at all news stands after 11:30 a. m.

Tonight's 20 pages, 4 o'clock edition 2 cents, 5 cents wrapped, stamped and ready to mail.

For latter apply at business office State Journal.

TEACHERS, GET YOUR MONEY'S WORTH

Are you reading "Daffydils;" also "By the Way" on the editorial page every day? If not you are missing a lot of fun and not getting your full money's worth for the 2 cents you pay for this paper or the 10 cents a week you pay the carrier for it or the $1 you pay for the 100 days we offer to send it, penny a day, to your friend—including a page in color—the first and only daily in the world to run a page in colors daily.

Teachers should read the second page in today's paper and see if the State Journal has been successful in getting their names—if you have registered your name and address will appear today or tomorrow.

Watch for Saturday's double number—20 pages—with its big exclusive for Kansas and Kansas City features. Saturday's paper costs 5 cents; all other days 2 cents except at newsstands and on trains always 5 cents.

CHECK TO I. C. C.

Commerce Court Steps Between It and Railroads.

Long and Short Haul an Issue in the Case.

Washington, Nov. 10.—A thorough judicial inquiry into the constitutionality of the long and short haul provision of the present interstate commerce act will be the result, it is expected today, of the issuance yesterday by the commerce court of temporary injunctions in the Pacific coast freight rate cases.

The orders of the court were received by the interstate commerce commission with expressions of surprise. In the judgment of the commission the reductions in transcontinental freight rates made by its orders not only were entirely reasonable but conservative. Full recognition, it is pointed out, was given to the effort of the ocean competition on the Pacific coast with transcontinental rail rates; but it was maintained by the commission that inter-Rocky mountain cities like Spokane, Reno, Salt Lake City and Phoenix are entitled to more favorable rates on westbound traffic originating in the east.

The question of the constitutionality of the fourth section of the interstate commerce act—the long and short haul provision—is realized by all in interest, will have to be fought out in the higher courts. It is expected that before the commerce court in support of the temporary injunction attorneys for the transcontinental lines dwelt particularly on that phase of the case.

FOOTBALL TOMORROW

The teachers are staying over in a body for the football game between Washburn and State Normal. A large proportion of the teachers are old students of these institutions and seldom get a chance to see these teams in action.

The Normal team has been scored on only once this season. Tomorrow the Blue team of Washburn will attempt to make it number two.

The Normal supporters are confident of victory as evidenced by the advance sale of tickets. They will bring their band and 500 rooters.

The game will be called at 3 p. m. Previous to this the Freshmen play the Apprentice team of the Santa Fe. Admission to the grounds is 50 cents.

MUSIC AT NATIONAL.

An Orchestra Will Play While You Dine Sunday Evenings.

Horace G. Humphreys of the National hotel has decided to give the patrons of his cafe music during the dinner hour on Sunday evenings in future. Mr. Humphreys is proprietor of both the National and Glenwood hotels and deserves great encouragement for the fine hotel service he is now giving Topeka.

He has made the prices popular at his excellent cafe. The charges are surprisingly low for the first class hotel the National is. The dining room is enjoying a fine patronage and with good music the Sunday evening meals will be more popular than ever. Topeka should be proud of the New National.

Governor May Call Special Session After All.

Insurgent Leaders Are Clamoring for Move.

WOULD BE BAD ONE.

Frank S. Thomas Expresses a Democratic View.

No Justification for the Large Expenditure.

While the more conservative of Governor Stubbs' friends do not expect him to call a special session of the legislature for the sole purpose of trying to get an anti-Taft delegation to the next national convention, yet his radical friends are clamoring for it and his enemies are hopeful he will yield to the pressure. Wild as it may seem, on the surface, yet it is a fact that the governor now is considering the matter seriously. The regulars are chuckling in their sleeves and the Democrats do not try to conceal their satisfaction. If the Republicans start the campaign year of 1912 with a grand row in a special session, they who shall have the Kansas delegation, Taft or LaFollette, why so much the better for Hillard, Hodges, Farrelley et al.

The regular session of the legislature killed a presidential primary bill when it was not nearly so plain a stab at Taft. What will a special session do? The senate Republicans stand two to one for Taft and the house, while insistent, yet was for Taft. If the presidential primary bill failed to pass the burden would rest on Stubbs. He could not shirk it. The sine of a regular session rest on that body, but the sine of a special session, called into being by the governor himself, will rest upon him, also its achievements.

If there is a special session it will sure be a helluva row. The cost will be $50,000 and if a primary is passed add $50,000 more to the bill and charge it to the progressives. Look up the balance sheet and you will find that the governor himself is going to O. K. at the bottom of the resources or profits. But it is still two to one there will be no special session.

Next year looks like a big year, anyway. A special session would be a superfluous attraction.

Frank S. Thomas left this afternoon for Kansas City where he joins Speaker Champ Clark this evening and will accompany him to Dodge City where the speaker is to address the congressional convention of the "Big Seventh" district. Mr. Thomas remarked to a State Journal reporter: "Looks as though Governor Stubbs is going to call an extra session of the legislature to pass a presidential primary law; the Kansas City Star is favoring it and its relation to the governor is close. In my humble estimation this calling of the extra session of the legislature is a pretty risky proposition for Mr. Stubbs. He is calling it in my good Democratic friend and his private secretary and they better think a great big think before he calls it. Now, if I were Governor Stubbs I should call it off his back as the thing now stands and you know there is an old proverb that says, 'Let well enough alone.'"

"Of course the governor and Brilow and all of their insurgent followers are determined to beat Mr. Taft out of the state and believe in a national convention if they can, in which event they would aid Mr. La Follette in his fight on Taft but it must be remembered that the extra session of the legislature is going to cost the taxpayers of this state from $50,000 to $100,000 directly or indirectly, and every man, woman and child knows that the calling of the legislature together is done for no other purpose than to further personal political interests and to make a campaign fund and that patient ass, the taxpayer, may arise in his wrath and ask why the legislature should contribute that amount of money to aid Mr. Stubbs in a campaign having for its object the advancing of the interests of a few men in the legislature."

"I know there are tens of thousands of Democrats in this state that object to being taxed for the benefit of our good governor's campaign fund. Of course, if the governor and his insurgent friends want to foot the bill, why that would be all right, but to make the good people pay the bill is a very dangerous proceeding and it is the duty of the governor to remember that occasionally people get to 'voting which ever way they please' and notwithstanding that he personally and vigorously campaign for his own congressional district a few days ago he not only lost the district, but he lost his own county (Douglas) and I am told his own precinct, which ought to be a gentle reminder that while he has got Curtis 'faded' he better not take on the LaFollette fight, as something might develop that would require his entire strength in his own behalf. Calling the extra session is a dangerous proposition for the governor. We are all familiar with that old story of a sucker who was getting along all right, but whose iniquity was prompted him to twist a mule's tail to see whether he would kick or not and you will remember the results are said to have been disastrous."

J. N. Shuey, of Decatur county, member of the last legislature, will get in the race for the Democratic nomination for lieutenant governor next year. Shuey transacted business in Topeka today and met friends at the state house. He was elected over the Tuesday election for the office of lieutenant governor. Shuey is a Democrat and was elected from the Seventh district next January. It is expected that George Neely, the young Haverhill lawyer, will win the nomination at Dodge City tomorrow. Neely made the race against Judge Madison last year and is a brother-in-law of Governor Stubbs.

The Topeka Capital predicted on Wednesday that State Superintendent Fairchild would have no opposition for re-nomination next year. Then on Thursday...

(Continued on Next Page.)

President Henry J. Waters, Elected to Head State Teachers' Association.

Address, Prof. P. G. Holden, Iowa State college.

President—Henry J. Waters, Manhattan.

First Vice President—Miss Evelyn Eccles, Hutchinson.

Second Vice President—John H. Hughes, Chanute.

Third Vice President—John B. H. Hoffelinger, El Dorado.

These were the officers chosen at the closing minute of the morning session of the Kansas State Teachers' association. The reading and adoption of the report of the nominating committee was all done in almost less time than it takes to tell, notwithstanding a persistent rumor that the friends of Mrs. Margaret Hill McCarter would object on the grounds that it was high time that a woman should head the association. Mrs. McCarter, who was surprised when she read the first edition of today's State Journal, to learn that her name had been proposed as one of the nominees, declared that there was a move on foot to make her a candidate.

President Henry J. Waters is aggressive, and is popular among the educators of the state. The choice is a happy one. His name was mentioned last year by his friends who wished to have him head the organization.

One member only of the nominating committee voted against President Waters, but not for personal reasons. He was of the opinion that it was about time that a woman was at the head of the association and he has backed Mrs. Margaret Hill McCarter. Lee Harrison, superintendent of the Summer county schools, was talked of as a possible candidate by his friends.

Teachers were still registering this morning and the meeting of teachers is adjourned the most successful affair of the kind ever held by the association.

Pleased With Topeka.

The teachers are decidedly pleased with the manner in which they have been entertained in Topeka; that is, tion of the report of the nominating committee was all done in almost less time than it takes to tell, notwithstanding a persistent rumor that the friends of Mrs. Margaret Hill McCarter would object on the grounds that it was high time that a woman should head the association. Mrs. McCarter, who was surprised when she read the first edition of today's State Journal, to learn that her name had been proposed as one of the nominees, declared that there was a move on foot to make her a candidate.

Dr. C. E. Seashore of Iowa, Who Spoke Before Educational Round Table.

President Henry J. Waters is aggressive, and is popular among the educators of the state. The choice is a happy one. His name was mentioned last year by his friends who wished to have him head the organization.

One member only of the nominating committee voted against President Waters, but not for personal reasons. He was of the opinion that it was about time that a woman was at the head of the association and he has backed Mrs. Margaret Hill McCarter. Lee Harrison, superintendent of the Summer county schools, was talked of as a possible candidate by his friends.

Teachers were still registering this morning and the meeting of teachers is adjourned the most successful affair of the kind ever held by the association.

Pleased With Topeka.

The teachers are decidedly pleased with the manner in which they have been entertained in Topeka; that is,

(Continued on Next Page.)

(Continued on Next Page.)

(Continued on Next Page.)